

Achieving MDGs for Global Health

SUMMER SCHOOL PROGRAM

JULY 7 - JULY 19, 2013

School of Public Health, Fudan University (FUSPH)
Shanghai, P.R. China

Learning Objectives

1. To gain a comprehensive understanding for the Millennium Development Goals (MDGs) and health as a priority in MDGs
2. To exchange strategies and experiences as have been implemented and taken place in low and middle income countries in their efforts to achieve health-related MDGs

Program Overview

- Multidisciplinary collaborative training through lectures, group work, panel discussions, field visits, and case analysis reports
- Introduction to the development of MDGs and the monitoring of their progress at global level
- Main topics on health as a priority in MDGs and the way towards the MDGs
- Certificate of Completion from the School of Public Health, Fudan University

Application Deadline June 13th, 2013

Who could apply

Senior undergraduate students and graduate students in the medical, public health, and other health-related fields

Admissions criteria

- At least 3 years training in medicine, public health, or other health-related areas
- Interest and career aspirations in the global health field
- Proficiency in English speaking, writing, and reading

How to apply

Please send your CV and completed application with your supervisor's and your signature by June 13, 2013 to:

Summer School Program
Box 175,
138 Yi Xue Yuan Road
Shanghai, 200032
P.R. China

By fax to +86-21-64174172

By e-mail to fghi2012@163.com

Course Fee

No registration fee will be charged. This program will cover accommodations for all participants in Shanghai.

Travel Scholarship

Scholarship will be available for 10 international students from different low and middle income countries and 20 Chinese students from different provinces to cover their international and inter-city travel expenses.

Program Director: Prof. Qian Xu (School of Public Health, Fudan University)

Sponsor: School of Public Health, Fudan University, China
China Medical Board, USA

For more information, please contact our Summer School Program:
by phone at 86-21-64174172 or on-line at <http://sph.fudan.edu.cn/rh>